☞ Armuy & Lee-Curtis have received a large lot of Family Groceries. They have excellent wines.—Through their kindness we received a bottle of old Sherry, which we pronounce excellent. TALLADEGA, ALA.,
Dec 12th, 1865.

The Members and Honorary Members of the Young Men's Benevolent Association, are respectfully requested to attend a regular quarterly meeting of the Association, to be held Monday Night next Dec. 18th at business of importance will be transacted.

By order of the President.
MORRIS FRANK, Sec., Y. M. B. A.

Gov. Jenkins, Governor elect of Georgia, will not permitted to take his seat for the present.

Provisional Governor Johnson, of Georgia, says he has orders not to issue certificates of election to the Congressmen elected from that State.

The Washington Chronicle, in an editorial, says Speaker Colfax endorses the President's reconstruction policy.

Hon. W. A. Graham, who was elected to the State Senate of North Carolina and refused a pardon, has been elected United States Senator, for the long term by a large majority.

IMPORTANT FROM TEXAS.—Through the kindness of Mr Fiske, of the Galveston Bulletin, we have been put in possession of the following dispatch:

Austin, Nov. 26.—The Governor has issued the proclamation ordering an election for a Convention on the 8th of January.

The Convention will assemble on the 7th of February.—[N. O. Star, 12th inst.

OUR SENATORS.—The Cincinnati Commercial (Republican) says of our new Senators to Congress:

The election of Houston and Parsons, U. S. Senators from Alabama, is a favorable symptom. Houston was one of the most distinguished members of Congress from Alabama before the war, and during the war, overpowered by the ruling madness of his section, was silent. But that his counsels now will be those of wisdom, we have assurance in his large and varied experience as a public man, and the moderation and tone of his character. Parsons the Provisional Governor of the State, recently urged the Legislature to ratify the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery, but establishes freedom forever—words worthy the occasion and to be memorable.

GOV. PARSONS' TELEGRAM.—The following is extracted from a report of the proceedings of Congress on the first day of its session, from the National Intelligencer:

Mr. Washburne then took up the following to the Clerk's table, which was read:

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 4.

Hon. Wm. H. Seward.

The amendment is adopted by an overwhelming vote. I will send you an authentic official copy at an early day. Please see that Alabama is announced as the twenty-seventh State.

L. E. PARSONS.

[Applause followed the reading of this dispatch.]

☞ Hogs have declined in price in the Western portion of Indiana, on account of the cheapness of corn, which can be bought in fields along the Wabash Valley, at 15 cents per bushel.

Out of $400,000,000 worth of property in South Carolina in 1860 but $80,000,000 remains.

☞ Of about forty forts constructed around the District of Columbia, only twelve are to be retained—nine north of the Potomac, and three south of that river.

Washington Dec. 9, 1865.—The President's Message was sent in to-day.

He says that resistance to the general Government having exhausted itself, the first question that arises is, whether the States which attempted to secede, shall be held as conquered territory under military authority from the President.

He holds that military governments for such States periods, would have no security for an early suppression of disconcent, but would have divided the people into irreconcilable and vanquished—would have produced hatred, rather than affection.—The true theory is to inhibit the pretense from the beginning that cannon could transform nor screen the individual citizen who may have committed treason. The States that attempted to secede placed themselves in a condition where their function were suspended, and nothing stripped but if any State neglects or refuses to perform its office, there is machinery in the Government should make it active authority, and as soon as practicable resume the exercise of all its functions.

On this principle he acted gradually, and by almost imperceptible steps brought to restore the rightful authority of the Government and to that end appointed Provisional Governors.

All parties to the late war must work in harmony, and it is not only time to meet for the one side to rid the policy of the opposite and to act in conformity, with a willingness to cast the disorders of the past into oblivion; and to ask from the other, evidences of sincerity, and to put future contentment of the Union beyond question, by ratifying the anti slavery amendment of the Constitution.

This amendment being adopted by two-thirds of the States to reconstruct their places in the two branches of Congress, and thereby completes the work of restoration. The President says he has no authority to make freedmen elections; that reconstruction with the States. They can decide whether it is to be adopted at all, or conferred it racially with condition, however, that good faith requires security for freedmen in rights of person and property and also to compensation for their labor.

It will be a constant aim to promote peace and unity with all foreign nations. He believes them all actuated by the same disposition. The accordance of belligerent rights to the Southern States was unjustifiable, but England was an exception to the general rule.

The relations between the United States and Mexico, he thinks, [illegible] cause could not be sustained before the tribunals of the world, but he does not advise any attempt at redress by legislation, for the good will of the two countries must rest upon a basis of entire justice.

Thus far this Government has wisely forebone to become the propagandists of republicanism, but it should be a cause of great calamity to ourselves and to good government if any foreign powers should establish in the American people to its defence against foreign interference, and he relies on the wisdom and justice of those owners to respect the system of non-interference which has been so long sanctioned by time.

Raleigh, Dec. 4, 1865.—W. A. Graham has been elected United States Senator for the long term.

He was a member of the Confederate Senate, and has not been pardoned.

New York, Dec. 9.—Cotton dull and heavy at 50 cents. Sterling 9½. Gold, 48½.

Liverpool, Nov 24.—Sales of cotton for the week 57 000 bales, at a decline of ¼d. The market closed firm with an advance of 20d.

London, Nov. 24.—Political news assuring.

Fenian forces commanding Dublin, has been strongly garrisoned since the 13th by a large mili are forces.

Washington, Dec 7.—In the Senate, to-day, the Chairmen of the Judiciary Committees were announced.

The House adjourned until Monday.

Fuller, Clarke and Waldrop, Representatives elect from North Carolina, have left for their homes. They are inclined to the opinion that the Southern delegates will not be admitted for several month.

MARRIED—On the 7th inst., at the residence of the Rev. J. O. Burt, by the Rev. O. Wolff, Mr. A. R. S. MOSELEY, of this place, to Miss MARTH WELCH, of Marshville.

Off happy pair, to every blessing born!
For you the rose-bud's sweetest smells I cull;
For you the rose-bush's sweetest smells I cull;
And light as morning shine the evening gull

MR SUMNER'S BILL.—The following is the oath prescribed in Mr. Sumner's bill, introduced in the U. S. Senate on the 4th inst., to maintain Republican form of Government to states in rebellion:

I do hereby swear that I will at all times hereafter use my best endeavors to maintain a republican form of Government in the State of which I am an inhabitant, and in the Union of the United States, and I will at all times recognize the indissoluble unity of the Republic, and will, always and in all circumstances and recent any conditions to break away or secede from the Union, that I will give no influence and act at all times to sustain the national credit, that I will always counteinance and resist any attempt, openly or indirectly, to repudiate or protract either in any part or in any way, any debt which was contracted in the United States, in subduing rebellion or the obligations made and to Union soldiers, and that I will always discountenance and resist any making any distinctions of color or race, and will always strive to maintain a State Government loyal to the Union, where all men shall enjoy equal protection and equal rights.

This oath is to be observed and any one who may take and any one who may violate it shall be guilty of and punished for perjury, and such shall forfeit all right to office thereafter.—The bill was ordered to be printed.

The same gentleman introduced another bill to preserve the right of trial by jury, which provides that grand juries shall consist of one-half of persons of African descent, in cases where one sixth of the population are of African, and the same proportion in petit juries, where the matter relates to any injuries inflicted by a person not of such descent, and vice versa, and prejudice against such African race is made a ground of challenge and exclusion from such juries. The bill was ordered to be printed.

STATE OF ALABAMA,
TALLADEGA COUNTY

Probate Court, Special Term,
Dec. 6, 1865.

Estate of Uriah Sparks, dec'd.

THIS day came Aaron Parker, Administrator of the Estate of URIAH SPARKS, dec'd, and filed an account current between himself and said Estate, together with the vouchers relied on to sustain the credit side of his account, also the names, ages and residence of the heirs at law of said Estate, for a partial settlement of his administration on said Estate.

It is therefore ordered that Thursday, the 11th day of January 1865, be a day set apart for such settlement before this Court, and that notice thereof be given by publication in the "Alabama Reporter," a newspaper published in the town and county of Talladega, once a week for three weeks successively.

WM. H. THORNTON,
Judge of Probate.

To His Honor W. H. Smith:

We, the Grand Jury for the county of Talladega have the honor to report:

We have examined the Court House, and deem it unnecessary to suggest any repairs at present.

There is no Jail in the county but as the Commissioner's Court have assessed a Special Tax of one hundred per cent. on the State Tax for the purpose of providing one, it will only be necessary for the Grand Jury upon the Court the pressing necessity for their continued prompt and vigorous action in the premises.

We have examined the Books of the County Treasurer and find that he has on hand, after paying all current expenses, the sum of Eight Hundred and Eighty-two 94-100 Dollars, and has disbursed Ten thousand five hundred and eighty-six 80-100 Dollars, leaving a balance on hand of Ten thousand one hundred and two-100 dollars on Confederate currency.

The Books of the County officers are neatly and properly kept.

The Bonds of the County officers are in form and amply secured.

The public roads in the County are for most part in a deplorable condition. The bridges are mostly out of the other section of the county has rendered it impossible for overseers of roads to enforce the usual or necessary amount of labor on roads, and hence we deem it proper to pass the subject with this general presentment.

The limits of this report will not admit of an extended notice of all matters which usually perhaps properly receive notice at our hands. The condition of the country is an anomalous one, having but just emerged from a Revolution unparalleled in magnitude by anything in modern times. The entire fabric of society has become disorganized and well nigh destroyed. Crimes of certain characters had been so frequently indulged in as to have become "almost respectable." Feelings of such ambition and hostility had been engendered as seriously imperil the future happiness and prosperity of the country. In all this there was blended a degree of evil that scarcely which if entirely could be attended only by the most ruinous results to the peace of the country.

Under this state of things acts have been committed, which under ordinary circumstances, would, to say the least, have been inadmissable in a well regulated society. But having at the time apparently received the unbridged confidence of the then existing government, both civil and military, we have not considered it prompted by the "Public good" to take such action within the premises as would perhaps have been appropriate under other and different circumstances.

We deem it our duty and duty to earnestly entreat our people to forget, as far as possible, the errors and injuries of the past, and unite in a patriotic effort to restore and humiliated, our impoverished country to its former greatness and prosperity.

The new relation of the white and black races in our State, has thoroughly deranged and for the present destroyed the labor system of the country as applied to agricultural purposes.

The negro in his new relation is worthless as a laborer and without vigorous Legislative action on this subject, the agricultural interests of the country must inevitably suffer.

In this connection we would recommend to our Legislature the passage of a law conferring upon the inferior jurisdiction in all cases of misdemeanors committed by negroes, and that in lieu of punishment by imprisonment in the county jail, they be authorized to put them at labor on the public roads under overseers appointed by the Commissioner's court, not exceed forty and paid out of the county treasury. We also recommend that laws of apprenticeship, and vagrancy, be modified that in their application as negroes they be simple, summary and prompt.

The books of the Grand Jury are herewith delivered to his Honor Judge Smith, clear, logical, and appropriate, together with his uniform courtesy.

Our duty is ended and hereby tendered to the Solicitor & Witnesses, who have been faithful & efficient, for their services, courtesy, and advice.

Respectfully,
J. P. Bowman, Foreman.
